Medical and Other Important Information

Your personal health information:

In addition to our Irish Life Data Privacy Notice, the following is more detail relating to your personal health information that we collect and use in connection with this plan contract.

We need your relevant personal information and personal health information for underwriting decisions. This will determine whether we can offer cover and on what terms. We also need your relevant personal information and personal health information to assess and pay claims. If relevant, we will share your personal health information with reinsurers and Chief Medical Officers for underwriting and claims decisions. We can use your personal information and personal health information for any subsequent applications to Irish Life.

In addition to the personal health information we collect from you, we may request and receive your relevant personal health information from GPs, consultants, hospitals or other health professionals, and share your relevant personal health information with GPs, consultants, hospitals or other health professionals, if needed.

Duty of Disclosure:

When deciding whether to insure you and when setting the terms and premium, we will rely on the information you have given us. You must answer all questions that we ask honestly and with reasonable care. Where we ask you to answer a specific question, the subject matter of the question is material to the risk we are undertaking or the calculation of the premium or both.

If your answers are not true and complete, we may be entitled to void the policy without return of premium, repudiate liability, treat the policy as if it had been entered on different terms, or limit the amount paid on foot of the contract of insurance.

You must tell us all relevant information when answering the questions asked. This includes disclosing tobacco consumption or use of nicotine replacement products including e-cigarettes. If you are not sure whether something is relevant to the questions asked, you should tell us anyway . We may also contact you if we need to ask you for further information on your answers or as part of any subsequent claim. We will rely on what you tell us and we will not automatically clarify or confirm any information you provide with your GP.

You can address any highly confidential information to Irish Life's Underwriting Team in a sealed envelope with your name, date of birth and application number (if applicable). You must refer to this information when answering your health questions.

If your answers to any of the questions in this application form change between the date you apply for cover and the date your application is accepted, you must let us know immediately as failure to do this may result in a claim being refused.

Genetic Test Information:

You should not tell us about any genetic test (that is, any analysis of chromosomes, DNA or RNA to detect genetic abnormalities in individuals) which you may have had. You must however, where required by our questions, tell us if you are having treatment for or experiencing symptoms of, a genetic condition. You will be asked for information about your family history, including all genetic conditions.

Consent to Automated Decisions, including Profiling:

I agree to automated underwriting decisions being made about me based on set risk criteria and using my personal information, including personal health information. I understand this will make my application process quicker and that the automation is designed to reduce costs, improve efficiency, quality and consistency in underwriting decisions. I understand that I have the right to withdraw such consent at any time by emailing dataprotectionqueries@irishlife.ie or writing to Irish Life Data Protection Team. I also understand that I have the right to object and to request that a person review and make the final underwriting decision which may also be done by emailing dataprotectionqueries@irishlife.ie or writing to Irish Life Data Protection Team.

B. Plan Declaration

I understand and agree that information that I have provided in the declarations in this form, my completed application form (online or otherwise), any supplementary questions answered, any statements made to Irish Life in writing or by telephone, and / or any information I give to a medical examiner or nurse acting for Irish Life are material to the decision of Irish Life Assurance plc (Irish Life) to enter into this contract, on these terms and for the calculation of premium and that Irish Life has relied on this information in so doing. My contract with Irish Life comprises the plan schedule, the terms and conditions booklet and any extra rules which Irish Life head office staff may add in writing.

I have read and understand the important information about my obligation to answer all questions asked by Irish Life in connection with the application and I understand that if I do not answer these questions honestly and with reasonable care, Irish Life will be entitled (depending on the breach) to declare the plan void, refuse my claim, treat my insurance as if it was entered on different terms, or reduce my claim. If this happens, I understand and acknowledge there may be no cover under the plan, Irish Life may not refund my premiums and Irish Life may not pay a claim.

I declare that all answers I have provided, including those about tobacco consumption or use of nicotine replacement products including e-cigarettes, are true and complete. I declare that I have answered all of the questions in this form honestly and with reasonable care.

I understand that I must tell Irish Life in writing about any changes in my answers to the specific questions in this application form between the time I applied for cover and the date my application is accepted.

I understand that this plan will not start until Irish Life has accepted me for cover and I have paid the first payment.

I understand that Irish Life can use my personal information for any subsequent applications to Irish Life.

I authorise Irish Life to request and receive my personal health information now (or as part of any claim assessment including after my death) from any GPs, consultants, hospitals or other health professionals who at any time has attended me concerning my physical or mental health and to share my personal health information with any health professional for the purpose of processing my application and assessing claims.

- I confirm I have read and understood the Medical and Other Important Information section.
- I confirm I have received the product booklet and Customer Information Notice.
- I confirm I have been informed about the Irish Life Data Privacy Notice and where to get this.

Declaration of Customer(s)
