11. Data Protection Notice

This notice explains the most important aspects of how we use your personal information, but you can get more information by viewing our full privacy policy at aviva.ie/privacy or requesting a copy by writing to us at The Data Protection Team, Aviva, Building 12, Cherrywood Business Park, Loughlinstown, Co. Dublin.

Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland DAC is the main company responsible for your personal information known as the data controller. Additional data controllers involved in the process for obtaining and maintaining insurance cover include the intermediary/financial broker (who is responsible for the sale and suitability of the product) and applicable reinsurers.

We collect and use Personal Information about you in relation to our products and services. Personal Information means any information relating to you or another living individual who is identifiable by us. The type of personal information we collect and use, will depend on our relationship with you and may include more general information (e.g., your name, DOB, contact details) or more sensitive information (e.g., details of your health).

We collect personal information from you and any relevant third parties (including that authorised by the Declarations) under and in relation to this Application and the administration of the policy, to include processing benefits and complaints. You don't have to provide us with any personal information, but if you don't provide the information, we need we may not be able to proceed with your application or any claim you make. We will let you know what information is required to proceed with your application or any claim you make. We may also use personal information about people other than you e.g., limited personal information on administrators/managers of a relevant pension arrangement, your nominated representatives, personal representatives, and your attorneys (under powers of attorney). If you are proving personal information about another person, you should show them these notices.

Some of the personal information we use may be provided to us by a third party. This may include information already held about you within the Aviva group, information we obtain from publicly available records, and from industry databases, including fraud prevention agencies and databases.

We use your Personal information to provide and administer financial products and services requested by you and to manage our operations effectively.

We may also use profiling and other data analytics to understand our customers better (e.g., what kind of content or products would be of most interest) and to predict the likelihood of certain events arising (e.g. to assess insurance risk or the likelihood of fraud). We may carry out automated decision making to decide on what terms we can provide products and services, deal with claims and carry out fraud checks. More information about this, including your right to request that certain automated decisions we make have human involvement, can be found in the automated decision-making section of our full privacy policy.

Your Personal Information may be shared with other Aviva group companies and third parties (including our suppliers e.g. claim service providers, and regulatory and law enforcement bodies). We may transfer your Personal information to countries outside the EEA but will always ensure appropriate safeguards are in place when doing so.

We maintain a retention policy to ensure we keep personal information only for as long as we reasonably need it - please see our Privacy Policy for further details.

You have certain rights in relation to your Personal information including a right to access personal information, a right to correct personal information and a right to erase or suspend our use of your personal information. You also have the right to request for your personal information to be transferred to another organisation, a right to object to our use of your personal information, a right to withdraw consent (where we rely on consent) and a right to complaint to the Data Protection Regulator. These rights may only apply in certain circumstances and are subject to certain exemptions. You can find out more about these rights in the Data Rights sections of our full privacy policy or by contacting us at DPO@aviva.com.

5. Data Protection Notice

This notice explains the most important aspects of how we use your personal information, but you can get more information by viewing our full privacy policy at aviva.ie/privacy or requesting a copy by writing to us at The Data Protection Team, Aviva, Building 12, Cherrywood Business Park, Loughlinstown, Co. Dublin.

Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland Ltd is the main company responsible for your personal information known as the data controller. Additional data controllers involved in the process for obtaining and maintaining insurance cover include the intermediary/financial broker (who is responsible for the sale and suitability of the product) and applicable reinsurers.

We collect and use Personal Information about you in relation to our products and services. Personal Information means any information relating to you or another living individual who is identifiable by us. The type of personal information we collect and use, will depend on our relationship with you and may include more general information (e.g., your name, DOB, contact details) or more sensitive information (e.g., details of your health).

We collect personal information from you and any relevant third parties (including that authorised by the Declarations) under and in relation to this Application and the administration of the policy, to include processing benefits and complaints. You don't have to provide us with any personal information, but if you don't provide the information, we need we may not be able to proceed with your application or any claim you make. We will let you know what information is required to proceed with your application or any claim you make. We may also use personal information about people other than you e.g., limited personal information on administrators/managers of a relevant pension arrangement, your nominated representatives, personal representatives, and your attorneys (under powers of attorney). If you are proving personal information about another person, you should show them these notices.

Some of the personal information we use may be provided to us by a third party. This may include information already held about you within the Aviva group, information we obtain from publicly available records, and from industry databases, including fraud prevention agencies and databases.

We use your Personal information to provide and administer financial products and services requested by you and to manage our operations effectively.

We may also use profiling and other data analytics to understand our customers better (e.g., what kind of content or products would be of most interest) and to predict the likelihood of certain events arising (e.g. to assess insurance risk or the likelihood of fraud). We may carry out automated decision making to decide on what terms we can provide products and services, deal with claims and carry out fraud checks. More information about this, including your right to request that certain automated decisions we make have human involvement, can be found in the automated decision-making section of our full privacy policy.

Your Personal Information may be shared with other Aviva group companies and third parties (including our suppliers e.g. claim service providers, and regulatory and law enforcement bodies). We may transfer your Personal information to countries outside the EEA but will always ensure appropriate safeguards are in place when doing so.

We maintain a retention policy to ensure we keep personal information only for as long as we reasonably need it - please see our Privacy Policy for further details.

You have certain rights in relation to your Personal information including a right to access personal information, a right to correct personal information and a right to erase or suspend our use of your personal information. You also have the right to request for your personal information to be transferred to another organisation, a right to object to our use of your personal information, a right to withdraw consent (where we rely on consent) and a right to complaint to the Data Protection Regulator. These rights may only apply in certain circumstances and are subject to certain exemptions. You can find out more about these rights in the Data Rights sections of our full privacy policy or by contacting us at DPO@aviva.com.

6. Declarations by PRSA Policy Owner

The information I have supplied with regard to my current benefits are correct. I agree to Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland DAC requesting information from the Trustee and/or Employer so that the required calculations on maximum Revenue benefits can be made. I understand that Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland DAC may refuse contributions if it cannot establish to its satisfaction that Revenue Maximum limits will be adhered to over the course of the contract.

I understand that Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland DAC will inform the Trustees and/or the Employer of the existence of this AVC PRSA arrangement. I am aware that the benefits from this AVC PRSA must be exercised at the same time that I receive benefits from my main pension scheme.

I understand that this is a Standalone AVC arrangement for the purpose of accumulating a fund at retirement.

I acknowledge that I am aware that an AVC provided in conjunction with my employer's scheme may have guarantees or other benefits that will not be matched by this PRSA.

I agree that I will inform Aviva, in writing to our registered office, Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland DAC, Building 12, Cherrywood Business Park, Loughlinstown, Co. Dublin, D18 W2P5 in the event in my changing employment status (including becoming a member of an occupational pension scheme, or leaving such a scheme), or becoming a 5% or 20% director.

I declare that the statements made above are to the best of my knowledge true and complete and together with my PRSA application form shall be the basis of the proposed contract(s) to be effected with Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland DAC. I understand that copies of the application form, contract conditions and benefit illustration are available on request.

I have read and understand the Data Protection Notice. Where I am providing information about another person (e.g. administrator/manager of transferring pension arrangement, nominated representatives or attorneys), I confirm that I have:

- let them know what information I have shared with Aviva;
- shared the Data Protection Notice with them; and
- obtained their confirmation that they have read and understand the Data Protection Notice.

I understand that Aviva require for the purposes of this Application that I have done so.

I agree and understand that Aviva's processes may involve electronic means including, but not limited to, data entered on-line, the capturing of my signature on an electronic device, the use of electronic signature or the use of a signature-free process; Aviva's processes may also (even where commenced on-line) involve manual processes and /or require wet ink signing of documents at certain points. I agree that for the purposes of relevant Aviva processes any electronic signature is the legal equivalent of a manual signature.
